

ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE

SATURDAY EVENING, JANUARY 1.

LONDON'S SOCIALISTIC REFUGE.—It is seriously proposed to take up the stones and asphalt in Trafalgar Square and lay it out as a park or garden. This is suggested because of riotous assemblages that so often take place there. Trafalgar Square is really the centre of London, and the disorderly element look upon it as a sort of city of refuge. All property holders in the vicinity are strongly in favor of the change. The largest hotels in London are situated in the vicinity. These hotels pay taxes to the amount of $300,000 per annum, and they are getting tired of boarding up their windows to save themselves from the hands of mobs. Prior to the recent meeting of the socialists in Trafalgar Square, hotels near there received floods of telegrams countermanding orders for rooms.

Trafalgar Square is the most celebrated gathering place for popular assemblages in the world. Fully one hundred thousand people can congregate there. It is graced by the Nelson column, about two hundred feet high, with Landseer's four splendid lions couchant and statues of Wellington, Napier and Havelock.—London dispatch.
